

Dr Kim Winser OBE

Appointed to the Board as a Trustee in February 2013, Dr Winser has substantive experience and expertise in the consumer and retail industries. She began her career with Marks & Spencer and became its first female commercial divisional Board Director as well as its youngest Director in the 1990s.

Kim has a reputation for positioning and developing British brands both here and globally, building their online business and ultimately improving substantially their brand value. She went on to successfully deliver turnarounds for both the iconic British heritage brands Pringle of Scotland and Aquascutum both as Global President and Chief Executive Officer. She became a senior advisor to 3i, a British leading private equity firm, for its investments in the consumer and retail industries, Chairing one of their brands.

Kim also served as an advisor to Natalie Massenet at online retailer Net-a-Porter and a Non-Executive Director of the Edrington Group based in Scotland.

She is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Winser London Limited, an online womenswear business, selling both here in the UK and internationally.

Dr Winser is also a non-executive Board member of Hong Kong & Shanghai Hotel and Property Group (Peninsula Hotels).

She received her Doctorate from Heriot-Watt University for her work in the British textile industries and an OBE in 2006 for services to the fashion industry.

Update July 2018