

International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature

ZooBank - a universal, open-access register for the scientific names of animals

Friday 11 May 2007 2.00 pm - 5.00 pm
Baird Auditorium

An open discussion meeting, hosted by AAZN, the American Association for Zoological Nomenclature, will take place in the Baird Auditorium on Friday 11 May as part of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature's (ICZN) General Meeting 9-13 May, itself part of the International Union of Biological Sciences (IUBS) General Assembly. The topic under discussion will be "ZooBank - the way forward", and speakers will include David Patterson (Woods Hole Marine Biological Laboratory), Andrew Polaszek (ICZN), Richard Pyle (Bishop Museum, Honolulu) and David Remsen (Global Biodiversity Information facility - GBIF).
