Letter from Wallace, Alfred Russel to Wallace, Violet Isabel
Dated: [1892]

***************

[[1]]

Parkstone, Dorset

Tuesday Evening [1892]

My dear Violet ¹

I have just now returned from the North after lecturing in York, Newcastle, & Darlington - & am so full of work with lots of letters, plants for garden, wooden walls &c. &c. that I cannot write now about seeds, so I send you Lubbock ’s book & if you read Chapters 3 & 4, you will find lots of interesting [[2]] facts about seeds which will suffice for half a dozen lessons. You can find some of the common plants in seed now no doubt.

In haste | Your affectionate Papa | Alfred R. Wallace [signature]

ENDNOTES

1. ARW ’ s daughter, Violet Wallace (1869-1945)

***************

Information about this transcript

Copyright of text: ©A. R. Wallace Literary Estate
Transcribed by: Bradbury, Alexandra on 08/07/2011
Edited: 10/05/2012 - Szentgyorgyi, Katherine; 15/01/2013 - Catchpole, Caroline;

Please note that work on this transcript is not yet complete. Users are advised to study electronic image(s) of this document, if available.

Please cite this transcript as follows:

This transcript was last edited on 01/11/2012