2311 CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

In a closed session of the Board – Hilary Newiss, Chair of the Appointments Committee, reminded Trustees of the appointments process which had been conducted in accordance with OCPA guidance, and in a robust, open and transparent way.

The process had identified one outstanding candidate who fully met all the essential criteria for the role and who was available to meet the full Board of Trustees today.

The candidate then joined the meeting to deliver a short presentation and answer questions from the Trustees. Following this session the candidate left the meeting, the Director and Chair of Trustees withdrew.

The remaining Trustees agreed unanimously:
(1) to extend the current Chair for up to twelve months until the end of March 2023;
(2) to invite the nominated candidate to attend the Board of Trustees as an observer from October 2022;
(3) to appoint the nominated candidate as a co-opted Trustee and Chair of the Board of Trustees at a date no later than 1 April 2023.

The Chair also provided an update on the proposed improvements to the sub-committees and groups of the Board of Trustees, following discussion on this at the Annual Trustees Strategy day in September 2021.

No changes were proposed for the Audit and Risk (ARC), Infrastructure (IC) Committee, Remuneration Committee or the Nomination Committee.

The Commercial Advisory Committee (CAC) will be reshaped when the Commercial Trustee has been recruited, and the Development Advisory committee (DAC) was work in progress, with Frances Cairncross continuing to Chair.

Professor Yadivander Malhi has agreed to chair the Science Advisory Committee (SAC) at the end of Stephen Sparks' tenure.

The Director explained that the new structure will be progressed in the new year, noting that all committees should be Chaired by a trustee.

Trustee recruitment campaigns to replace Professor Sir John Beddington (who retired from the Board in March 2021) and Dr Kim Winser (who retired from the Board in August 2021) are ongoing. Further updates will be provided as the process progresses.

2312 DIRECTOR'S REPORT (TP 21/59)

Trustees received a briefing from the Director on the activities of the Museum since the last meeting in July 2021.

The Director gave an overview of recent activities at COP26, where the Museum had partnered with the New York Times and NHM Ambassador David de Rothschild. These activities had proved successful in allowing the Natural History Museum to strengthen the case for Biodiversity on a high profile international stage, and engage with wide audiences, from government to youth activists.

The video of Dippy on Tour was shown to Trustees; the Board noted the great significance of this national project with its vast and diverse audience reach as Dippy moved across the UK.

The Director summarised the Museum’s approach to ethical decision making with regard to corporate sponsorship. The Ethics Panel regularly updates the Executive Board on any live cases and decisions are made informed by the Panel’s input. Built into the Museum’s approach is that Trustees will be informed of significant debate on major proposals and proposals.

Clare Matterson (Executive Director of Engagement) informed Trustees that a brand audit has now been completed and brand refresh concepts will be brought in due course to the Board.
2313 FINANCIAL REVIEW FOR THE PERIOD APRIL – OCTOBER 2021 (TP 21/60)
The report presented by Neil Greenwood (Executive Director of Finance and Corporate Services) reflected the financial position to October 2021. Neil Greenwood explained income, expenditure and reserves scenarios based on current projections. The Museum is awaiting news from DCMS on its Grant in Aid allocation. The 3 Year Budget and Financial Plan will be brough to the February 2021 Board.

Items for approval:

2314 NHM BOOK PROPOSAL (TP 21/61)
The Board of Trustees agreed that now would been an opportune moment to prepare to follow on from Steam’s The Natural History Museum at South Kensington: a history of the museum 1753-1980, to ensure no history is lost. Trustees approved the NHM Book Proposal and the recommended approach.

Items for discussion:

2315 EQUALITY, DIVERSION AND INCLUSION UPDATE (TP 21/62)
Workforce Action Plan – Alison Lodge and Laura Popazzi
Alison Lodge (Director of Human Resources) and Laura Popazzi (Head of Diversity and Talent) presented their Workforce Diversity Plan. Actions so far are showing positive results and the team are committed to ensuring the progress is maintained across the strands of the workforce plan.

The Executive Board and Management Board at the Museum have undertaken a robust set of diversity training including transgender awareness and anti-racism; Trustees were invited to express their interest to also partake in this training, which can also be arranged for them.

Inclusion and Access Landscape – Clare Matterson and Jane Samuels
Jane Samuels (Cultural Inclusion Lead) presented the EDI and Access update, which showed how the museum is ensuring inclusion and access for diverse audiences. A Dawnosaurs video was presented to the board as an example of an event the museum runs for children with neurodiverse conditions. Clare Matterson’s Diversity blogs over the last year have been met with good reception, so will continue to be published.

Over the next year the NHM Access statement will be reviewed encompassing all areas of public provision; the Board will be updated in due course.

2316 TRING STRATEGY (TP 21/63)
Trustees had the opportunity to visit the Tring site as part of Board proceedings, across collections, galleries, the library and outside spaces. Alex Burch (Director of Public Programmes), Paul Kitching (Head of NHM@ Tring), and Alex Bond (Senior Curator in Charge, Birds Tring) presented the plan for NHM at Tring, explaining its history, current provision and the opportunities. The plan is: to revision the spaces and public engagement activities for local and broader audiences; to capitalise on the benefits the Museum’s new Urban Nature Programme will bring as part of the meadow and outside spaces; and to use the outstanding ornithological Collection to focus on biodiversity research and preservation of birds.

There is also the potential of connecting Tring with the Our Broken Planet programme and it will benefit from the Museum’s wider push for accelerated digitisation of the Collection (currently 12% of the Tring collection is digitised). Clare Matterson (Executive Director of Engagement) noted that an exhibit on the natural history of birds were part of the forward public programme.

The Board thanked the team at Tring for the tour and presentation and endorsed the direction of travel for the Tring Strategy.
