

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS BEE?

Shrill Carder Bee (Bombus sylvarum)

- Black band on thorax
- Black stripe(s) on abdomen
- Dull reddish/orange tail
- A mainly straw coloured bee

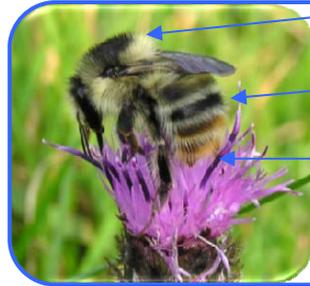

Queen length - 13mm
Worker length - 9mm
Male length - 11mm
Has a noticeably high-pitched buzz.
Queens emerge in May, workers mid-June, male and new queens in August.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS BEE?

Shrill Carder Bee (Bombus sylvarum)

- Black band on thorax
- Black stripe(s) on abdomen
- Dull reddish/orange tail
- A mainly straw coloured bee

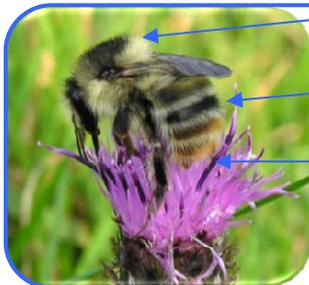

Queen length - 13mm
Worker length - 9mm
Male length - 11mm
Has a noticeably high-pitched buzz.
Queens emerge in May, workers mid-June, male and new queens in August.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS BEE?

Shrill Carder Bee (Bombus sylvarum)

- Black band on thorax
- Black stripe(s) on abdomen
- Dull reddish/orange tail
- A mainly straw coloured bee

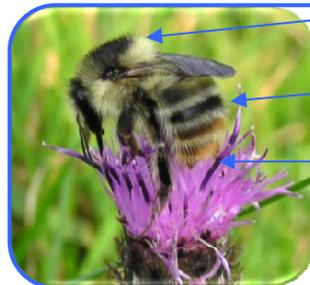

Queen length - 13mm
Worker length - 9mm
Male length - 11mm
Has a noticeably high-pitched buzz.
Queens emerge in May, workers mid-June, male and new queens in August.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS BEE?

Shrill Carder Bee (Bombus sylvarum)

- Black band on thorax
- Black stripe(s) on abdomen
- Dull reddish/orange tail
- A mainly straw coloured bee

Queen length - 13mm
Worker length - 9mm
Male length - 11mm
Has a noticeably high-pitched buzz.
Queens emerge in May, workers mid-June, male and new queens in August.

Habitats

Flower-rich grassland, coastal dunes & grazing marshes, vegetated shingle & brownfield sites.

Preferred flowers:
Long tubular flowers;
Pea family
deadnettle family
Figwort family.

Look-a-likes:

Common Carder

Brown-banded Carder

If you find a Shrill Carder Bee
please send to:
advice@bumblebeeconservation.org

Habitats

Flower-rich grassland, coastal dunes & grazing marshes, vegetated shingle & brownfield sites.

Preferred flowers:
Long tubular flowers;
Pea family
deadnettle family
Figwort family.

Look-a-likes:

Common Carder

Brown-banded Carder

If you find a Shrill Carder Bee
please send to:
advice@bumblebeeconservation.org

Habitats

Flower-rich grassland, coastal dunes & grazing marshes, vegetated shingle & brownfield sites.

Preferred flowers:
Long tubular flowers;
Pea family
deadnettle family
Figwort family.

Look-a-likes:

Common Carder

Brown-banded Carder

If you find a Shrill Carder Bee
please send to:
advice@bumblebeeconservation.org

Habitats

Flower-rich grassland, coastal dunes & grazing marshes, vegetated shingle & brownfield sites.

Preferred flowers:
Long tubular flowers;
Pea family
deadnettle family
Figwort family.

Look-a-likes:

Common Carder

Brown-banded Carder

If you find a Shrill Carder Bee
please send to:
advice@bumblebeeconservation.org

